Reply from Sweden regarding notification in relation to the Convention on Environmental Impact Assessment in a Transboundary Context for the proposed nuclear power station at Wylfa, Anglesey, North Wales

The Planning Inspectorate notified Sweden about the proposed nuclear power station Wylfa 1st February 2017 and requested if Sweden would like to participate in the EIA procedure.

The Swedish Environmental Protection Agency, acting as the competent authority for the Convention of Environmental Impact Assessment in a Transboundary Context, has after consulting the Swedish Radiation Safety Authority, decided not to participate in the EIA procedure.

However, Sweden would like to be registered as an “interested party” as was offered in the notification.
