CV of Professor Nigel Morgan and Annette Pritchard of Swansea University

Professor Nigel Morgan, FRSA, FTS, FCIM

Professor Nigel Morgan is Associate Dean for Special Projects and Head of the Business Department at Swansea University's School of Management, where he holds a Chair in Visitor Economy Management. Nigel has a professional background in tourism and sport development, research and strategy and marketing at Sport Wales and in Welsh local authorities and has held senior academic posts and professorial titles in six universities in the UK, Norway and Italy. He was formerly Director of Surrey University's Digital Visitor Economy Research Centre (2013-16); and Member of Visit Wales' Advisory Board (2014-2017). Nigel is a Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts, the Tourism Society and the Chartered Management Institute and a Member of the International Place Branding Association Board.

The ESRC, EU and Norwegian Research Council have funded Nigel's research and he has conducted 30-plus consultancy projects for organisations in Wales, Europe, the USA and Asia (e.g. UEFA, Visit Wales, the BBC, Orlando-Sanford Airport, China National Tourist Office). He has given expert testimony on the impact of Brexit at the EU Transport & Tourism Committee (2018) and at the Welsh Government Selling Wales to the World Enquiry (2017). He recently advised on Swansea's UK City of Culture 2021 Bid (2017), delivered a project for the EU on mitigating the impacts of terrorism and building resilience in the tourism sector (2016), chaired the Visit Wales Research & Insights Task & Finish Group (2015-2016), and conducted a review of the Wales Major Events Unit (2012). He is currently working on a Health Leadership Academy and a £50m integrated wellbeing, assisted living, leisure and life sciences/educational campus development for Swansea University.

Professor Annette Pritchard, MSc, PhD, MTS

Professor Annette Pritchard has a professional background in tourism and sport policy and strategic research and development at Sport Wales and the Wales Tourist Board and is currently Special Advisor to the Wales Tourism Alliance. A native of Anglesey and a second-language Welsh-speaker, she has held senior academic posts and professorial titles in universities in the UK and Europe and was formerly Director of Cardiff Metropolitan University's Welsh Centre for Tourism Research (2000-2017). Annette has been an expert witness at two Welsh Government Tourism Enquiries (2017, 2014) and at the UK Welsh Affairs Committee Inquiry into Tourism (2014). She has delivered over 30 consultancy projects for funders and clients in the UK, Europe, the US and Asia including UNESCO, the BBC, and Visit Wales, the largest being interim and final evaluations of the £32 million Visit Wales Promoting Wales to the World Marketing Programme (2009-2010). Annette has written extensively on tourism destination marketing/management (including 19 books), regularly comments on Welsh media on tourism and recently keynoted at the Go North Wales Tourism Summit (November 2017) and the Council for Australasian Tourism and Hospitality Education (February 2018).
