Morning, [redacted]

Thank you for giving us the opportunity to take part in this further consultation on the non-material change application. I doubt that we will have anything to add to the response which is already before the Secretary of State (attached), but I will share with the team for information.

Many thanks again.

[redacted]