NORFOLK VANGUARD OFFSHORE WIND FARM – Red line Boundary consultation (refinement of proposed development area)*Consultation under Section 42 Planning Act 2008

We previously contacted you at the end of October 2017 through our formal consultation process, inviting you to submit feedback on the proposed cabling route for the Norfolk Vanguard Offshore Wind Farm project.

Further to a review of all the comments received from the formal consultation process and a refinement of our proposed development area, we have made a change to the red line boundary which may affect land in which you hold an interest. Please see the enclosed plan(s) showing the amendment (shaded in dark blue) and the land within the red line boundary, including the additional land that is now potentially affected by the project. The changes made are minor in nature and do not lead to any new or materially different environmental effects to those presented in the Preliminary Environmental Information Report. However, as these changes may affect your land/ area of interest, we are informing you prior to submitting our application.

We would like to give you the opportunity to comment on these minor changes and request that you return any responses in relation to this amendment by the 26th of May 2018. We are currently finalising the Project design and are preparing various application documents for submission. We will however endeavour to consider and review any responses received. We therefore kindly request that any comments are provided as soon as reasonably practicable.

Comments can be made in writing:
