Dear Sirs,

Norfolk Vanguard Development Consent Order Application

We write further to our letter of the 16th January enclosing a written representation on behalf of Cadent Gas Limited and reserving the right to appear at the Issues Specific Hearing on the 7th February.

We have now made progress with the promoter in relation to the Indemnity/Insurance/Surety points raised in our written representation in paragraphs 4.9 to 4.17. To this extent as we are making progress we do not feel that it is necessary to attend tomorrow's hearing. However we are still awaiting for confirmation from the promoters solicitors over points relating to the detail of insurance and surety provisions and accordingly we reserve our position in terms of attendance at the Issue Specific Hearing on the 28th March 2019 until all points are resolved.

We would hope that the promoters are in a position to both confirm their position on the outstanding points with Cadent and seek to reach agreement with us, sufficiently in advance of this date in order to avoid any attendance being necessary. To this end we will be asking the Promoter to try to conclude negotiations with us by 14th March in order to inform the need to appear at any future hearings.

Yours sincerely

Abigail Walters
