Dear Sirs

The Planning Act 2008 – Section 89 and The Infrastructure Planning (Examination Procedure) Rules 2010
Application by Norfolk Vanguard Limited for an Order Granting Development Consent for the Norfolk Vanguard Offshore Wind Farm

Please find below further written responses from the National Trust relating to matters still outstanding at deadline 4.

Topic	The National Trust's Position
Compulsory Acquisition of Inalienable Land	Heads of terms are under discussion in relation to an option agreement for a deed of easement.
	There are no major outstanding points so far as this aspect of the heads of terms are concerned. Discussions continue on some detailed points, notably about the extent to which the National Trust would agree not to object to future applications relating to Vanguard and Boreas, but these should be capable of resolution.
	However, the National Trust has not yet been provided with a draft of the detailed option agreement, so it is unable to make any comment on that and may therefore have further points. It will not wish to withdraw its objection until the option agreement has been agreed.
Archaeology	The heads of terms referred to above contain provisions about archaeology, and in particular the way in which archaeological finds will be treated and information about them provided. The heads of terms are not yet agreed in this aspect, in particular about the way in which information and objects are made available to the National Trust and displayed to the public. The Trust has a special role to play in this regard in terms of its functions, which distinguish it from ordinary landowners.
	As mentioned above, the detailed draft option agreement has not yet been provided, so the National Trust is unable to comment further and may have further points when it is.
Road closures	The heads of terms in relation to this aspect are agreed, but again the National Trust reserves its position until it has seen and agreed the detailed agreement.
