

I think that food production in this country should be protected from Schemes like this.

Plus, it is clear that Sunnica has not researched their proposal fully, and cannot be trusted to run the so called Energy Farm, aka A Battery Farm, safely if approved.

Increasing the infrastructure on the proposed site, puts local very close inhabitants and Schools in more danger.

Sunnica's record of consultation is poor, and in my opinion this is just another stalling tactic.