Dear [REDACTED],

I write on behalf of our client Stena Line Limited (Stena) in response to your letter of 21 August seeking further information on behalf of the Secretary of State from the Applicant and a number of Interested Parties in relation to the above Project.

We understand that the Applicant has today written in response to your letter indicating that it and our client Stena have reached agreement verbally on the key terms of a commercial agreement regarding the impact of the Project on our client's commercial operations.

I am instructed by my client to confirm that the response received by yourself from the Applicant is indeed correct in that agreement as to terms has been reached verbally and work on finalising the necessary legal agreement is proceeding. It is hoped that the formalisation of the legal agreement can be agreed and completed as soon as possible and our client will keep the Secretary of State fully informed as to progress.

Yours sincerely,

[REDACTED]
