

The wide surrounding area in which I live is being degraded by this combined gigantic proposal. Lincolnshire will become grey countryside the greenscape will disappear and the biodiversity will quickly become eroded. If these panel are so efficient put them on top of factories and other large builds.