

This progwct is not suitable for the area scheduled due to need for good arable land for food production and so detrimental to the rare wildlife observed in this area. Also the scheme is not economically good value for the amount of land used for solar. Solar on roofs much more useful and value to the country as a whole.