

Our village cannot survive 116 storage units known as BESS. This project would be equal in size to the largest in Europe in Blacklock Scotland. Aldington and Mersham are rural agricultural villages and many of these huge storage units are planned to be near houses and even our school. Please think again! We cannot sustain our lives here with this plan