

I am very concerned at the inclusion of a BESS scheme. This would result in multiple building-sized, ugly, out of keeping, structures in the landscape. Further there is insufficient safety infrastructure, notably there is no ready supply of water in case of fire, to justify these extra buildings. The proposal to distribute them would greatly exacerbate their adverse effect on the landscape.