

We very strongly believe that the proposed installation of batteries and solar panels is far too large to surround this village. We know that the potential risk of fire, fumes and environmental contamination from the batteries is a risk that our residents should not be subjected to.