

I am appalled by the development at Eaton socon as I drove passed early today the thought that similar will be coming my way is so upsetting, I feel so upset and trapped, as we will not be able to sell up and do not want to leave this now beautiful area, I am not looking forward to my future [REDACTED] as I was before, this scheme is just too large ,it needs reducing to a fair size, about a tenth of the proposed size.