

As far as I can understand, the size and location has absolutely no coherent justification except as a money making venture underwritten by the Government, funded by us, the tax payer. Locals will not benefit from the proposal in any way and will lose out on prime agricultural land being used for non food growing purpose which in a time of global insecurity beggars belief.