

At the last meeting at Wyboston the applicant discussed and answered questions about the connection to the grid in Eaton Socon.

It appeared it had not got all the connections agreed (cant remember categories) but why would this proceed without all the connections needed in place..e.g surely would not want a large Bess storage being used to make investors money, without all the coonections approved and in place at the same time for full functionality of ther project, if approved.