

given the length of time we have been without rain - what fire precautions are East Park Energy planning to take if the application is successful? It would only take a spark to set the ground alight - look at dunwich heath