Mr Wallis asked yesterday if I could send details of Salt Cross.

There is much information at Salt Cross Garden Village - West Oxfordshire District Council

You will also find the link to the report by the Planning Inspectorate on the Area Action Plan, from which you can deduce that the village is almost certain to be built.

Salt Cross will comprise the whole area north of the A40 at Eynsham, for approximately 2km northwards.

The highest point of Salt Cross, looking across to the Evenlode Valley section of proposed Solar Farm, has coordinates::The51.790830, -1.383669
51.792251, -1.384014

This is on a public Right of Way. I would be pleased to accompany the inspectors if they wish.

I would be grateful if you could acknowledge receipt of this email, and if you could let me know if you would like further information from me (or WODC) about this aspect of the local area.

Regards

Dan Levy

District Councillor.
