

THE BOTLEY WEST POWER STATION.

This is not the measured, judicial argument that our opponents demand of us. This is a scream of rage and frustration from one who has lived in Oxfordshire for most of his life. The [REDACTED] behind this destructive project will say.

[REDACTED] old fool? You will be dead long before our Bulldozers and JCBs start ripping up the green agricultural land and covering it with glass and steel and bisecting it with steel mesh fences topped with razor wire and lit up at night with searchlights. We will hammer concrete blocks into the ground and build ualv transformer boxes and [REDACTED]

“Destroying beautiful food-producing land is a crime. The cost to the well-being and mental health of those who live here cannot be measured. The cost of destroying ancient and historic villages by overbuilding cannot be calculated by accountants and politicians. Successive governments have told us that the opinion of those who live here [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] democracy is worse. When our local representatives oppose the destruction of West Oxfordshire then [REDACTED]. Whether we are threatened with an 11 m [REDACTED] r [REDACTED] wns without sufficient sewage treatment, without extra schools ofrmedical services, we - the people who live here- must oppose this massively funded, anti democratic process.
