

Cassington Parish Council will attend the Issue-Specific Hearing as requested on the 9th October, 2025. The delegation may include representatives from Cassington Parish Council and Clive Carpenter, the hydrologist commissioned by Cassington Parish Council, depending on his availability. We note that a number of our members are under pressure over this time period as a result of their employment.