

There will no longer be views over the hills and valleys when I walk and exercise. Land for food and natural habitats gone. Development much too near Blenheim Palace. Not enough thought gone into alternative sites or alternative ways for energy recovery. The development is too large and sited too close to villages etc.