

From RVAA, it is stated that the panels will be hidden behind hedges. But at the South side of the proposed development, the panels will be on a hill, therefore visible from all roads and in particular my home on the Eynsham Road.