Dear Planning Inspectorate

PVDP was given ample time to prepare its application to meet the deadline of 9th June. It failed to answer many important questions and requested 3 extra months which the inspectorate denied. The upcoming deadline of 16th July is for responses by interested parties to the original application and surely not for the developer to make substantial new submissions for the inspectorate's consideration. This would set a precedent for any developer who initially gets their application rejected.

Yours faithfully

Mr T Godfrey
