

Marsh Road is not a suitable route for heavy traffic. It has already caused expenses and distress to residents needing to use the road and access for land owners needing to tend livestock along the road. Damage and continued use of road by Severn trent water. Unless the road is totally renewed it can never be suitable for more traffic to and from industrial vehicles