

I have concerns about the size of the proposed development, it shouldn't be built on agricultural land. I am also concerned about the cumulative impact of large scale energy projects in the county. If they all go ahead they will change the landscape irrevocably.