

I would like to express my concerns on the impact on drainage and water management by the proposed project of Springwell Solar farm, the area lies on the a major aquifer and the area has lots of springs and rising water with the run off from the large scale solar proposal how will the down stream villages and properties be protected from the millions of litres that will not be able to be absorbed by crops and the ground?