

Compulsory Acquisition can never be used to justify removing people's homes and livelihoods in the name of net zero.