

The BESS and inverter stations are growing in size, looks like you are connecting them up. This is dangerous to the local communities health. Also looks like the land is being sold off to other outside companies and will never be turned back to agricultural land. We have been lied to, Springwell solar is blatantly lying to the public and the local community!