

Submission ID: S64D6D0EB

The size and scale of this project across these small villages is ridiculous and damaging to the environment. The villages will be completely surrounded by hideous framework and panels on some of the best farmland in Lincolnshire. Solar panels should be utilised on the roofs of buildings and not prime farmland. There is also no infrastructure to support the many contractors needed to build the monstrosity and local roads are already crumbling.