

Submission ID: S542313A9

The project is not required due to the fact that there is sufficient capacity already in operation, a large amount of which has not yet been connected to the grid. The British Public are still paying towards that unusable power so a better plan would be to upgrade the grid accordingly and get it all connected to be able to use it.