

East Riding of Yorkshire Council's Ecologist has advised that, having considered the details within the Report on Implications for European Sites (RIES) PD-018 and supporting documents, the position of the East Riding of Yorkshire Council, as an interested party, is accurately reflected and we have no outstanding concerns in relation to identified impacts on protected site.