

Submission ID: S454EABE6

I'm really concerned about food security which I believe should be the 1 st priority of the Government and the loss of so much farmland potentially for ever, there is no viable safe alternative to growing food. There are plenty for power. Secondly I'm concerned about vast amounts of HGVs on rural lanes has there carbon footprint of this including closure and diversions been realistically factored in ?