

Our house looks out towards Oving to the South East across the valley where some of the infrastructure is planned. We will lose the beautiful view over unspoilt countryside and be severely impacted by the construction of both the substation and storage facilities. [REDACTED] and we spend most of our time at home or in the garden. If this disturbance goes ahead it will impact on our health and wellbeing. I attach photos of views from our bedroom and bathroom and garden

