

Responding to Q1.19.13

The National Trust are satisfied that the amendments to the oCTMP have addressed the concerns we raised in our representations and minimised the impacts on staff and visitors to Claydon House. We are content for the National Trust to not be part of the Traffic Management Group but there must be continual and open communication channels between the operational staff at Claydon House and the Construction Traffic Management Plan(s) Co-ordinator.