

I would like to support comments already made on fire risk. Recent hot weather and outbreaks of wildfires has underlined the risk of a major fire and the difficulty there would be in controlling any fire should it occur
Recent announcement of 12,000 houses to be built in nearby Winslow highlights the major disruption further large scale projects would cause on unsuitable roads and locations.