

I am deeply concerned about the potential contamination of our drinking water and the loss of good agricultural land