

I would like to know why One Earth Solar - apparently - failed to submit our community objections - over 400 responses and 99% strongly opposing this project and the failure to submit both an equestrian survey and mental health survey which a lot of work had been put into by [REDACTED] and myself. Was that not a legal requirement on their part?