

Seriously damaging to the local community and environment. The plan is poorly thought out and the reasons proposed to benefit the community are unsubstantiated and cannot work. This is not a project for the community this is a vanity project of the government disguised as greening. The only reason they are taking this agricultural land out of production is because the existing power station can cope with the supply. If that is the only reason the economics clearly do not stand up.