

The timetable runs for a short period of time given it includes Christmas, New Year and Easter Bank Holidays, it is a complex project and simply will not have time to read and under stand and thus fully engage with the process. Secondly can the agenda for ISH1 Agenda be published so that we can decide whether to attend and prepare. Thirdly the deadlines refer to submitting summaries if the original submission is longer than 1,500 words when the guidance said to submit as much detail as possible, this creates an additional burden.
