

Has consideration been given to adopting mixed technologies ie turbines and vernadium batteries sourced and made in this country rather than depending on Chinese manufactured products. Can the [REDACTED] that if the panels are sourced from China that they are not made using slave labour.