

Submission ID: SE474CA46

Further to my original comments on my initial representation I now have grave concerns regarding the impact of 2 to 3 years construction timetable and the chaos this would cause with the number of large wagons on rural roads etc. I would also like to add that destroying farmland in the current world crisis is unacceptable. Food security is already a massive risk for an island population such as the UK.