

I would like to stress the real threat this will have on the hospitality businesses and tourism industry in the area.