

I do not believe that the Limedown Applicant's thematic responses sufficiently resolved the written representations that I have already made. I attended the Planning Inspectorate meetings part physically and part virtually and do not feel that my issues were resolved there either. I continue to object to the Applicant's Limedown Proposal on the original grounds that I raised.