

application had been submitted which every person I talk to feels we are destroying of farmland to allow commercial companies to make profits large profits NOT considering the damage it will do when we see other China India increasing the number of power generators using fossil power so why why destroy our countryside which will be required for food production