

Further to the Applicant's response to my response to the Examining Authority's first written questions, table 2.17 Exam/9.45:

Paragraph 2 the Applicant has excluded pre-construction liaison with the tenants regarding potential interference with the private asset slurry lagoon during cable laying. Since the tenant has day to day management of the relevant land it would be essential to include the tenant in these discussions.