

AWP supports the initiative as an essential decarbonisation project. With a project of this magnitude, there will be adverse impacts that have to be mitigated. We would like the developer to mitigate the visual impact of the solar panels and ensure that access to green space is maintained in order to realise mental health benefits.