

I am against the use of farmland for solar panels and feel utilising industrial buildings & creating solar panel canopies for car parks is a much better solution. However as the government do not seem to be taking into account the enormous local opposition, in return I would want a footpath agreed to be made between Shepeau Stow and Whaplode Drove as part of any planning conditions agreed for any of Meridian's solar panel scheme plans passed in the future.