

I am deeply unhappy about the proposed Green Hill solar farm in Lavendon. Having lived here for over thirty years I have regularly walked the Three Shires Way, enjoying the landscape and wildlife, the changing seasons with the arable crops, the views. I am very concerned about the flooding risk with the likely funnelling of water from the panels into the ditches and brooks and so into the village.