

My main concerns for opposing the solar farms are as follows,
All of the land use, such as the loss of fertile farmland and its impact on food security, and visual and community impact, including changes to the landscape, potential effects on local wildlife, the years of heavy traffic using all the rural roads around this area