

I would like to further challenge the developer's position, documentation and defense of their stance that the construction of Site G will not contribute towards an increased flooding risk in Lavendon.